NOTE:

Whilst smoke can be generated by a number of different sources and activities from within a community, the most common activities that lead to complaints are backyard burning, open wood fires and solid fuel (combustion heaters).

If noise is emanating from an industrial premises, contact the Environment Protection Authority (EPA) to determine if licensed by the EPA and therefore not within Council's jurisdiction. Contact numbers (24/7) 1800 623 445 or (08) 8204 2004.

The Act allows Council to consider granting exemptions from local nuisance-causing activities for short-term activities such as festivals, events or major construction activities. All exemptions are published on the Council's website. Please check prior to submitting form.
