Some of the volunteers who support vital services with our community.

National Volunteer Week 2025: Celebrating the Power of Connection

National Volunteer Week (19–25 May 2025) is Australia's largest annual celebration of volunteering. This year's theme, 'Connecting Communities', shines a light on how volunteers bring people together, foster belonging, and help build stronger, more inclusive communities.

At the District Council of Yankalilla, we are proud to celebrate the remarkable contributions of our volunteers who generously support four vital services: the Community Transport Program, the Fleurieu Coast Visitor Centre, the Yankalilla Library and the Community Nursery. Their efforts not only keep these services running, they help create genuine connections between people from all walks of life.

We also extend our thanks to every volunteer in our broader community. Whether it's lending a hand at a local event, coaching a junior sports team or supporting neighbours in times of need, your contribution matters. Together, you are the threads that bind our region - strengthening relationships and enriching lives.

Community Transport Volunteer Team (CHSP)

Our CHSP volunteers provide more than just transport - they offer connection, independence and compassion to members of our community who need support getting to appointments or the shops.

Driving under strict aged care regulations, they demonstrate reliability, empathy and professionalism each day. They assist clients with mobility needs, maintain confidentiality and always prioritise safety.

Their role often involves meaningful conversations, a friendly smile, or simply being there when someone needs it most. Thank you to our CHSP volunteers for building bridges of support across our region. Your service makes a real difference.

Festival Fleurieu

Congratulations to Libby Robertson and the Festival Fleurieu Committee on delivering another outstanding celebration of art, heritage, landscape and community. This biennial event once again brought together artists, musicians, writers and performers to showcase the incredible creativity and culture that exists within our region.

From art exhibitions and workshops to studio trails, music performances, heritage displays, and local food and wine, there was something for everyone. It was fantastic to see the entire district come alive with activity and celebration - thank you to all who took part, attended or volunteered to make this festival such a success.

ANZAC Day Services

ANZAC Day is always a time of deep reflection and community connection.

As we look ahead with the Council's Elected Members to finalise the 2025-26 Annual Business Plan & Budget, it's easy to be singularly focused on what's next; but such a moment in time also gives us the opportunity to reflect on what we've been achieving together over the past year - and there's plenty to celebrate.

The past 12 months have seen some significant wins for our district, made possible through the collective efforts of Council, staff and our community. One of the most notable achievements has been the successful transition of the Normanville Jetty Holiday Park to now operate under a Management Licence Agreement awarded to highly experienced and respected firm, Belgravia. This significant step forward provides a clear, long-term operational framework for one of our key tourism assets and positions the park to deliver great customer experiences.

This year we saw strong attendance at all four services held across our district - in Inman Valley, Myponga, Second Valley and Yankalilla.

Each service was respectfully delivered, with moving tributes to those who have served and sacrificed. Special thanks to the organisers and volunteers who ensured the commemorations ran smoothly, including the Light Horsemen who added a powerful presence at Inman Valley.

Annual Business Plan & Budget 2025-26

Public consultation has now closed on the Draft 2025-26 Annual Business Plan & Budget. I want to thank everyone who took the time to provide feedback - your input is a vital part of the decision-making process.

This year's draft was the result of one of the most comprehensive planning processes Council has ever undertaken, including six dedicated workshops with Elected Members and ongoing financial discussions. The result is a draft plan that aims to balance financial responsibility with delivering services that matter to our community.

We also saw a major shift in how we manage the Rapid Bay Campground. An alignment of circumstances enabled Belgravia to offer an approach to the Campground management allowing a single experienced operator to manage both parks. This outcome delivers great economic returns to Council and helps to ensure consistency and a high level of service for visitors.

Another highlight over recent months has been the successful completion of the Range Road upgrade project. This grant-funded project has made a real difference for our local residents, freight operators and tourists, improving safety, access and usability across a vital stretch of our road network.

These are just a few examples of the progress made in the last year. Other wins include the adoption of Our DCY Strategic Community Plan: Vision 2030 and the quiet but important background work that ensures the services which you value can continue to be delivered efficiently and sustainably.

Key features include:

- A proposed rates income increase of 6.4%, accounting for inflation, growth and service sustainability.
- Continued capital investment, with a measured reduction in asset renewal while updated data informs future planning.
- A commitment to operating within our financial means for 2025-26, with no increase in borrowings.
- A revised schedule of fees and charges reflecting Council's cost-recovery approach.

We're now reviewing all submissions and will take community feedback into careful consideration before finalising the plan in the coming weeks.

Thank you once again for your engagement and support as we work together to shape the future of our district.

Warm regards,
Darryl Houston
Mayor

As always, our goal is to make sure we strike the right balance - maintaining essential services and investing in our district's future, while recognising the financial pressures our community faces. That's why we've taken a rigorous, collaborative approach to developing the Draft 2025-26 Annual Business Plan & Budget, including six targeted workshops with Elected Members to test, challenge and refine our collective approach.

A highly engaging period of public consultation on the draft plan has now closed and I'd like to thank everyone who took the time to provide feedback. This input will now be reviewed by Elected Members at a further budget workshop before the final plan is considered for adoption at a Council meeting (scheduled for late June). Your voices and varied perspectives help inform our priorities and guide our decision-making, so thank you for your contributions.

Nathan Cunningham
Chief Executive Officer

Fleurieu Coast Visitor Centre Volunteer Team

With over 26 passionate volunteers contributing nearly 7,000 hours annually, the Fleurieu Coast Visitor Centre team plays a vital role in shaping the visitor experience and in turn, connecting our region with the world.

They greet thousands of tourists each year, sharing local knowledge, providing recommendations and coordinating bookings. Through quarterly "Famils" (familiarisation tours), they stay up to date with new attractions so they can offer visitors informed, genuine and memorable advice.

These volunteers are ambassadors for our district and its people. Their warmth and enthusiasm create lasting impressions — not just of the places we love, but of the community spirit that defines us. Thank you for connecting visitors with the heart of our region.

Thank You to All Volunteers

To every volunteer in our district, whether you're helping through Council programs or contributing in other ways, thank you.

Your selfless service creates lasting relationships, builds resilience and ensures our community remains connected, inclusive and thriving. You don't just help others - you inspire us all.

This National Volunteer Week, let's celebrate the people who give their time so generously. Your impact is powerful and deeply appreciated.

More of our wonderful teams from Community Transport Volunteers (CHSP) and Yankalilla Library Volunteers.

Yankalilla Library Volunteer Team

In the heart of our community, our Yankalilla Library volunteers foster a love of learning and help people feel welcome and included. They support everything from shelving and collection maintenance to children's storytime, book clubs and technology help.

Some deliver books to residents who are isolated or unwell, creating moments of joy and connection through thoughtful, personal interactions.

Whether they're assisting with local history research, crafting activities or helping someone discover a new favourite book, our library volunteers create a space where people of all ages can connect, learn and belong. We thank them for being champions of community spirit.

Proposed Road Re-naming Historical correction of Cheesman Road, Normanville

Council invites the community to provide feedback on the proposed name change of Cheesman Road, Normanville, to Cheesman Road, Normanville, to correct a long-standing error. This change is supported by the Cheesman family and the Yankalilla Historical Society.

The error originated from incorrect Lands Titles Office records. The misspelling affects all State Government data, satellite maps and street signs.

We encourage you to review the project information and share your feedback.

Here's how to get involved:

- Visit Your Say Yankalilla to read further and submit your feedback
- Provide a written submission to participate@yankalilla.sa.gov.au
- Post your submission to PO Box 9, Yankalilla 5203
- Prefer a conversation? Contact Council staff to arrange a time to discuss the project in more detail.

Consultation closes: Wednesday, 25 June 2025

Library Updates

Festival Fleurieu's 'Imagine your world in stories and art' at the Yankalilla Library

The second week of the school holidays found us surrounded by South Australian children's writers and illustrators. There was an amazing buzz at the library, as the days began with families of young children coming along to hear their favourite stories being read to them. They had the opportunity to craft their own illustrations about the books they saw.

The inaugural festival provided unique experiences for local young storytellers through a variety of workshops with the talented authors & illustrators from South Australia on hand to talk about their experiences. As the days went on, children were guided through steps to engage in perfecting their own writing and drawing skills.

Right: Mem Fox

Adults too, were reminded of their childhood or their own children's childhood as Mem Fox and Mandy Foot took listeners through a journey of their careers. Many books, purchased or bought from home, were signed by the authors.

Thank you to the incredible committee who organised this event for the young people of the district as part of the Festival Fleurieu.

Assets & Environment Update

Welcome to the monthly Assets & Environment Update, where we share key updates from across the district. This report, previously called the Capital Projects Update, now covers a broader range of works, including infrastructure, maintenance and environmental initiatives.

We encourage you to read the May Assets & Environment Update Report presented to Council for more details.

Here are some highlights from May:

Sealed & Unsealed Road Works

Council's Sealed and Unsealed Road Renewal Programs are continuing to improve roads across the region. Recent work includes:

- Sealed roads: Reservoir Road, Forktree Road (Myponga and Carrickalinga sections), Carrickalinga Road and a segment of Range Road Parawa.
- Unsealed roads: Hay Flat, Sorata (North and South), Old Chambers Road and tree trimming at Wild Dog Creek ahead of upcoming road works.

Range Road Parawa – Stage 2

Thanks to savings made during the early stages of planning, Council has extended Stage 2 works to include an additional 440 metres of road and shoulder resealing. Completion is expected by the end of May 2025, with full funding to be provided through the Special Local Roads Program.

Bridges and Local Roads

- Blacker Road Bridge: The design is being revised to suit local needs and reduce costs. While this means the bridge won't be built this financial year, it may allow funds to be redirected to another project.
- Forktree Road/Myponga Beach Road: This previously paused project may now go ahead as an alternative to the Blacker Road Bridge, pending approval to use the available grant funding.
- Myponga Beach Bridge: A contractor has inspected the bridge and is preparing a quote for essential maintenance works.

Township Sealing and Footpath Renewal

Design work is nearly complete for road, kerb and stormwater improvements in:

- Petrel Close
- Gulf Close
- Burnard Street

Council is also reviewing quotes for its upcoming Footpath Renewal Program, with works expected before the end of the financial year.

Finniss Vale Stormwater Project

Designs for this project are almost complete. The final design will position Council to access grant funding in 2025-26 through the Southern & Hills Local Government Association.

Proposed Quarry Expansion – Myponga

Council has been notified about a proposed extension to the Whittlesea Quarry on Main South Road, Myponga. The proposal involves extending quarrying operations to an adjoining area. No changes to traffic or dust levels are expected and the quarry would continue to operate under current conditions. No changes to traffic or dust levels are expected and the quarry would continue to operate under current conditions. Due to the reasons listed above, Council will not be making a submission. However, the public have an opportunity to make a written submission on the proposal until 22 May 2025.

Environment Reference Group Kicks Off

The newly formed Fleurieu Coast Environment Reference Group (FERG) met for the first time in April. This group brings together local knowledge and passion to help guide environmental priorities for the region. The next meeting will be held on 30 June 2025.

Food safety article

As we become more environmentally conscious, it's important to balance sustainability efforts with food safety practices. Some well-meaning habits, like saving water or energy, can unintentionally increase the risk of foodborne illness. Here's how to stay safe while still caring for the planet.

Water Use

While saving water is important, hygiene should never be compromised. Always wash your hands thoroughly and rinse fresh fruit and vegetables under running water to remove dirt and reduce bacteria and viruses. Avoid washing produce in a bowl of standing water, which can become contaminated and lead to cross-contamination.

If you're keen to conserve water, consider catching running water in a bowl or bucket and using it to water non-edible plants in the garden. If fruit or vegetables are labelled as pre-washed and are within their use-by date, there's no need to wash them again.

Energy and Refrigeration

Your fridge should always run at 5°C or below. Reducing your fridge temperature to save electricity can create ideal conditions for bacteria to grow, increasing the risk of food poisoning.

Gardening Safely

Homegrown produce is delicious, sustainable, and educational but still requires proper care.

- Never use 'grey water' (from washing machines, sinks, or dishwashers) on edible plants, it may contain harmful microbes, fats or chemicals.
- Avoid placing your garden near rubbish bins or contaminated areas.
- Use treated compost or ensure your homemade compost is well-matured to kill off harmful bacteria and weed seeds.
- Keep pests like rodents away, as they can spread disease.
- Do not use raw manure on food plants - it must be thoroughly composted first.
- Watch for damage from animals or insects and discard affected crops.
- Minimise chemical use, follow label directions exactly and observe any withholding periods before harvesting.

Shopping Smart

Use separate, leak-proof, washable bags for raw meat, seafood and produce. Retailers can still offer small plastic bags for these higher-risk foods, which can be recycled at many supermarkets.

Always shop for food last and head straight home. Use cooler bags with ice bricks on warm days to keep perishable items at safe temperatures (below 5°C). Choose clean trolleys and avoid placing unwrapped produce directly in the basket.

Don't leave groceries in a hot car and refrigerate or freeze perishable items immediately upon returning home.

Reusable Items

Reusable shopping bags and food containers are great eco-friendly choices but hygiene is essential.

- Clean reusable bags regularly and avoid storing them in the car where they can be exposed to dirt, pets or high temperatures.
- Ensure keep cups and containers are washed in hot, soapy water, rinsed and dried before reuse.
- When transporting food, keep containers sealed and use a cooler bag if travelling far or carrying perishable items.

Council Decisions

The following will provide a summary of the decisions made at the 20 May 2025 Ordinary Council Meeting.

As always, we encourage you to read the complete agenda and minutes to get the details and a greater understanding of topics at www.yankalilla.sa.gov.au/council/agenda-and-minutes
