MARCH 2024

in the loop

Our DCY Vision 2030.

Our DCY: Vision 2030

We're updating Council's Strategic Plan: Vision 2030 and developing a new Four Year Focus for 2024-2028.

As your local Council, we exist to deliver services across the district, undertake our legislative and regulatory responsibilities and play a key role in decision-making and advocacy on behalf of our communities. Our Strategic Plan is a long-term plan that looks towards the 2030 horizon and identifies the main priorities and aspirations of our community for the future.

Our planning continues to be guided by the 2030 Vision for the district that was set with the community in 2020, however, the Strategic Plan must be reviewed following each local government election.

The 'Our DCY: Vision 2030' project is a district-wide conversation that seeks to ask the community about the district's next chapter – What do you most love? What do you wish were different and what should we tackle over the next 5 years? – to develop refreshed priorities and a new Four Year Focus.

We invite you to join the conversation. Your voices ensure that we build a genuine understanding of the community's priorities as well as the challenges and opportunities we expect lie ahead, that's why we're making it easy to share your ideas and suggestions online, via hard copy submission or at any of our engagement events.

LGA Constitution Workshop

It was great to be part of the review of the Local Government Association Constitution. This marks a significant milestone as they embark on the first major update since reforms in 2018. This is just one step the LGA are taking to modernise governance and increase effectiveness as the peak body for local government in South Australia.

Club Fleurieu February Lunch

At the February Club Fleurieu Lunch, President Louise Allstrom and myself presented a cheque for $4,250 to representatives from 5CY (Keren Webber and Janet Graham) following the inaugural Mayor's Charity Lunch in January.

Keren and Janet were thrilled to accept on behalf of their organisation and Keren shared some background information about 5CY Community Pantry and told us their services continue to be needed more than ever in our local area.

Once again, I would like to thank everyone involved in making this event such a great success and plans are underway to hold a similar function each year.

Cape Jervis Progress Association AGM

It was a pleasure to assist with the Cape Jervis Progress Association AGM and I would like to congratulate them on a job well done in promoting Cape Jervis and the many great achievements this year including the continued collaboration between the 4 town sectors - the CFS, The Club, Progress Association and the Coastal Group. As a united force, they are continuing to raise the profile of Cape Jervis and advocate for the needs of their community. For example, at the recent Elected Member Forum, they discussed the safety issues around the helipad and I am pleased to announce at the recent Council meeting the Elected Members unanimously agreed to the motion of addressing the safety issues around the helipad. Great work all round and shows how strong our community is.

Normanville SLSC & Cafe/Kiosk Formal Opening

Council is delighted to have partnered with the State Government and the local Normanville Surf Lifesaving Club to deliver this new and iconic beachside destination. It's been fantastic to see the vision now operational and the early positive feedback has been overwhelming, never more so than the positive energy felt at the formal opening held on Saturday 9 March.

What a day, amazing weather, positive energy, great activation and wonderful guests to celebrate the completion of this great community asset.

Special thanks to Uncle Mickey O'Brien for his smoking ceremony which blessed the building, welcomed all-comers, connected visitors to the past and sought a blessing for the future.

Warm Regards
Darryl Houston
Mayor

The highly anticipated draft Cape Jervis Harbour Precinct Master Plan, led by the Department for Infrastructure and Transport (DIT), is now open for everyone's consideration and feedback. This plan represents a pivotal moment for our community, offering a roadmap for the future development of the Cape Jervis Precinct.

Whilst it's noted with some disappointment that the Plan lacks a funding strategy for ultimate delivery, your input is not only valued but essential in this process to help DIT understand the priorities. Whether you're a long-time resident with a deep connection to the harbour or a newcomer with fresh perspectives, DIT wants to hear from you. Your insights will help shape the direction of the precinct, ensuring it accommodates the diverse range of users with an improved user experience.

While this project is not managed by Council, we support and encourage your active participation. After all, this is about creating a harbour that reflects the desires and needs of the community. Whether you choose to participate in the online survey or attend one of the community information sessions at the Cape Jervis Community Club, your feedback matters.

Here at Council, we will be advocating on our community's behalf and have already heard from many of you through stakeholder forums. We know how important a replacement jetty is to the residents and visitors of Cape Jervis and this sits as the highest priority for Council's submission.

In other news, on Saturday, 9 March I had the privilege of attending the official 'ribbon cutting' opening of the Normanville Surf Life Saving Club and Café/ Kiosk building as part of the amazing Normanville Foreshore upgrade. The precinct was full of activation and activity for the long weekend, helped by amazing weather and the Surf Lifesaving SA Masters State Championships.

The official opening was attended by Ms Rebekah Sharkie MP (Federal Member for Mayo), the Hon Nick Champion MP (Minister for Planning), the Hon Katrine Hildyard MP (Minister for Recreation, Sport and Racing) and the Hon Leon Bignell MP (Member for Mawson). We couldn't have achieved the amazing upgrade for the precinct without their funding support and were delighted to have them all with us to celebrate.

Showcasing our Community Grant Recipients

Greater Southern Table Tennis Association – Western Fleurieu Branch

Last year was a very exciting Table Tennis year for the Western region and we are looking to expand our horizons beyond our immediate locality.

As part of our continued development of table tennis in the Western Fleurieu, we decided to join the Greater Southern Table Tennis Association (GSTTA) and we are now known as the Western Fleurieu Table Tennis Region (WFTR) of the GSTTA. The GSTTA covers the Fleurieu Peninsula and we can now be more active in a wider number of competitions. As part of this move, we are also now officially registered on the Table Tennis Australia ranking system.

We currently have five teams in the WFTR competition – Delamere, Myponga, Normanville, Second Valley and Yankalilla. In addition, there are regular social and practice sessions in Normanville and Second Valley.

The Western region Winter competition ended with ladder leaders Delamere taking on Myponga and it was not long before it became apparent that the Delamere players were going to prove unstoppable. Following the Winter competition, Kai Hillen welcomed 42 players to a presentation dinner at the Normanville Hotel.

The Great Southern Table Tennis Association had its inaugural competition between the Eastern and Western regions. The competition comprised two 8-person teams from each region and was played over two nights. The Western region won narrowly, based on the total number of points won.

The Yankalilla District Council granted the WFTR $2,500 to assist in the purchase of new competition standard tables and equipment. We received a certificate of recognition at the Yankalilla Australia Day celebration, presented to Kai Hillen by Mayor Darryl Houston. We want to sincerely thank the Council for their grant.

We also want to genuinely thank the Yankalilla OPSHOP for their financial support throughout last year. This has enabled us to purchase a table, barriers, scoreboards and umpire tables. These have helped in raising the standard of our competition and practice facilities.

We are also thankful for all our other sponsors and supporters, including Baldock Earthmoving, Yankalilla Landscaping and Gardening Centre, Club Fleurieu, Normanville Hotel and Normanville Bakery.

Bryce Pritchard, Normanville, has organised a weekly practice session at the Yankalilla Agricultural Hall on a Wednesday night, where all players (regardless of standard) are welcome. We have players from all the Western region's teams plus a good number of new faces in regular attendance.

An inaugural coaching session with Kay Crowell was well attended and will be repeated if there is sufficient interest.

In addition, Second Valley host a regular Friday morning practice session – call Alec Wheatley for details 0400 778 165.

The Winter season 2024 will start again on the 6th of May. We are always looking for new players for the social sessions or the competition. If you are interested in playing, you can contact Kai at 0422870035, or Bryce at 0428305260 for further details. We look forward to seeing you then!

Easter egg foil – here's your excuse

Yes, you can recycle aluminium foil wrapping from all those yummy easter eggs and bilbies. But... you should scrunch the clean and dry foil into a fist-sized ball to pop into your yellow recycle bin. So, hop to it, that's a fair few Easter eggs you'll need to eat to make a fist-size ball. Enjoy.

DEPOT NEWS

In our ongoing commitment to maintaining the safety and integrity of our community spaces, a recent discovery highlighted the swift and coordinated response of our dedicated team. During a routine assessment in Cape Jervis, an unexpected hazard emerged: a sinkhole had formed along a footpath, presenting a potential risk to pedestrians.

Thanks to the diligence of our inspectors and the collaborative efforts of our Town Maintenance and Civil teams, the situation was swiftly addressed. The area was immediately secured to ensure the safety of passersby and a thorough report was escalated for urgent action.

This incident highlights the importance of proactive hazard management. Through effective teamwork across departments, we were able to address the issue efficiently, ensuring the continued safety of our community members in public spaces.

Shopping & Storage

Food Safety

Strict food safety standards apply to food retailers in Australia to ensure that the food you buy is safe. But there are some signs you can look for to ensure you buy a safe product. Once you buy the food, it's important to make sure that it stays safe

Clean

Choose a clean trolley or basket for your shopping. Never put fresh fruit and vegetables you won't peel or cook before eating, directly into the trolley. Put them in a clean bag.

Re-usable shopping bags can be a source of contamination. If you use your own shopping bags, make sure you regularly wash them. Use separate, leak-proof, easily washable bags for meat/poultry/seafood and for fruit and vegetables. Insulated bags or coolers should be used to carry food such as meat and dairy products that require refrigeration.

Choose

Save money and lower your food safety risk by planning ahead and making a shopping list. If you buy perishable goods in bulk, make sure you have room at home to freeze what you don't use immediately.

Damaged food packaging can provide an entry for bacteria. Check cans for unusual swelling and/or leakage, broken tamper seals, rusty or severely dented cans, and damaged seams. Do not purchase the food if you see any signs of defects.

Don't buy food that has mould growth visible unless it is supposed to be there such as on some cheeses and cured products. If in doubt, ask the shop staff for advice.

'Use by' dates are dates marked on foods to advise shoppers that the food must be eaten before the marked date for safety reasons. Foods marked with a use by date cannot legally be sold after the date marked. Eating foods after the use by date is at your own food safety risk.

'Best before' dates refer to the quality of the food. They are marked on foods which do not present food safety issues, but if these foods are eaten after the best before date, they may have lost nutritional value and quality. Foods can be sold after the best before date marked provided the food is fit for human consumption.

The only food that can have a different date mark on it is bread, which can be labelled with a 'baked on' or 'baked for' date if its shelf life is less than seven days.

Foods that have a shelf life of two years or longer, for example canned food, do not need to be labelled with a 'best before' date. This is because it is difficult to give the consumer an accurate guide as to how long these foods will keep, as they will retain their quality for many years and are likely to be consumed well before they spoil.

Special needs?

Vulnerable people, such as pregnant women, the elderly, the very young and people with poor immune systems, are at risk of the illness listeriosis caused by Listeria in food and need to avoid certain foods such as soft cheeses and deli meats.

Chill

Shop for non-perishable food first – leave the chilled and frozen food until last.

Plan to do your food shopping last and take it straight home so perishable food is allowed to warm to temperatures in the danger zone (5° to 60°C) for as little time as possible. Chilled and frozen foods are best taken home in bags or boxes with insulation added to keep food cool and an ice brick can be included especially if you travel a long distance or expect a delay. Always go home with food purchases as soon as possible and don't leave your shopping in a hot car.

Separate

Avoid shops/markets where cooked or other ready-to-eat food (such as cooked seafood, cooked poultry or deli meats) can be seen in contact with raw products or where all these foods are served with the same utensils or are handled by the same shop assistant without changing gloves. Serious concerns should be reported to Council.

Keep raw meat, poultry or seafood separate from cooked and ready to eat foods. Ask the check-out operator to pack them in a separate, leak-proof bag (they can be packed in the same bag) and encourage them to pack chilled and frozen items together by placing these items together on the conveyor belt and by providing an insulated bag or cooler.

Storage

When home, pack chilled and frozen products into your refrigerator or freezer immediately.

If you receive home food deliveries make sure you are there to receive them and you put chilled and frozen products straight into the refrigerator or freezer. Alternatively arrange for these foods to be placed in a cooler with ice bricks in a shaded place that will keep your delivered food chilled until you arrive home.

Check labels for specific storage conditions to ensure safety and quality. Don't assume that you know how to store food as recipes change and modern food products like jams or sauces may have less salt or sugar than in the past and may need refrigeration.
